Things to do while you are in Portland

Consider these suggestions:

1. Friday morning we have scheduled a 5-hour bus tour of the Columbia River Gorge a National Scenic Area with its magnificent waterfalls, including Multnomah Falls, Vista House at Crown Point, Bonneville Dam Fish viewing, Beacon Rock, Wind Surfers, and amazing photo ops. The trip will travel up the gorge on the Oregon side and come back on the Washington side. Stopping in beautiful Hood River for lunch looking over the Columbia River. The cost is $50 per person. (lunch is separate) The first 25 people who pay will get on the bus. (if we have more we may get a bigger bus) Bus will depart 9am returning 2pm.
2. Shopping (No sales tax in Oregon). There are three major shopping centers in the Metro area and a smaller one in downtown Portland.
3. Beautiful & magnificent Mt. Hood and Timberline Lodge.
4. Many Oregon vineyards and wine tasting.
5. The Portland Japanese Gardens which are incredible no matter what season.
6. The Evergreen Aviation & Space Museum Campus.
7. The Oregon Zoo and their world-famous Elephant family.
8. The World Forestry Center & Vietnam Veterans Memorial.
9. Portland's Old China Town, Portland Art Museum, and the Oregon Maritime Museum.
10. Tour OMSI (Oregon Museum of Science and Industry) and a submarine.
11. Visit a live volcano at the Mt. St. Helens Visitor's Center.
12. Visit Ilani Casino for any gaming you would like to do.
13. Oh, and did we mention, NO SALES TAX in Oregon – Shop until you drop for all your Christmas gifts and pamper yourself on tours.

Come and see how beautiful Oregon is with its natural scenic marvels and big city cultural amenities, as well as any cuisine you could want in the Metro area.
